They care nothing about the effect the movement is expected to have on legislation, but it is a cheap and popular way to return to the East a large army of men who travelled West during the boom days on the coast and who are now a labor drug in Western cities.

While the organizer was here a wealthy man gave him a list of 104 undesirable citizens, and offered him $16 per head for as may of them as he would take East, the money payable when he reached Pittsburg, so that men will not drift back at once. The West, it is asserted, has been getting the undesirable citizens of the East, and is now shipping them back by the freight train load.
